IT'S ALL IN THE STARS

Think only fierce fire signs and Scorpios have planets going overboard for them? Not true. Superstar astrologers STARSKY + COX reveal the planetary power for every sign.

ARIES Mar 21—Apr 20

Ruled by Mars, named for the ferocious Roman war god (Greek: Ares): You are fierce. Yes, you see red. But you're strategic, thanks to wise Athena, Mars' feminist armour-clad sister. She lives in your mind, keeping you far ahead of the rest. You're beyond liberated and trailblazing, you're armed to defend against oppression. We take your Alpha lead because you're directional and so going places.

TAURUS Apr 21—May 21

Taurus' power is attraction, thanks to Venus working it on the earth plane. You draw on the catch-me, catch-me archetypes of the flower gods and nymphs. Even NBA stars can like their lingerie. Venus' femme attributes of beauty, grace and charm are mighty real in you. The fixed-earth sign—think: a garden—you cultivate and value yourself. Taurus is so money. Even your favourite colours are rich.

GEMINI May 22—Jun 21

Gemini is ruled by Mercury, named for the aerial messenger god who, like you, gets off messing with minds. Flight symbolizes divinity and you're touched by it. Omniscient and omnipresent, you're a raging infomaniac, electrifying any scene. Your words have wings, inspiring frenemies to great heights or reducing them to rubble. Like a bird of paradise, you crave shimmery adornments that catch the eye.

CANCER Jun 22—Jul 22

You're ruled by pearly Mother Moon, pregnant with possibility. The cardinal-water sign—la source!—Cancer is a well-spring of emotion, bubbling over with feeling. You have the power to purge your world of chaos and deliver it up, anew, at any moment. Call it wishcraft or call it hope that floats through life's ebbs and flows. You make arks, better known as promises, you never fail to keep.

LEO Jul 23—Aug 22

The Sun fuels Leo, the fixed-fire sign. Passion-powered, you hungrily tear into life. Lions are matriarchal, and Leo goddesses of the hunt are royally fixed on singular goals, aided by loyal biatches. In return, you give protection and creation to splashy, technicolour dreams as others also revel in them. The Sun is the heart(h) of life and, whatever golden road you stalk, Dorothy, there's no place like home.

VIRGO Aug 23—Sept 22

Your planet ruler is in question. Mercury? Undiscovered Vulcan (god of the forge). Or Chiron (the wounded healer)? You demure, keeping us guessing, digesting experience, extracting nutrient, discarding impurity. Voila the Virgin! Mutable-earth, neutral putty, you're becoming a vessel for change in the kiln of your own kindness. Don't mistake it for weakness. Humility is your penultimate power.

LIBRA Sept 23—Oct 23

The high-priest/ess of lofty principles. The Scales is the one abstract sign ruled by Venus on the astral plane. Even your colour is translucent. You embody ideals of love and beautiful notions—aesthetics, design, harmony, order and peace. Your charms are white-witch spells you cast onto the world. An activist, you set high standards, appreciating all you see.

SCORPIO Oct 24—Nov 21

Powered by Pluto, god of the underworld, whose frosty queen, Persephone, is the original femme fatale. You werque on the unseen level—it's all about chemistry—silently urging others to scan their souls, spill their secrets, confess their sins and reveal their best selves. You root out repression, unearthing hidden assets. A miner for meaning, you remain a mystery, flashing little more than a Mona Lisa smile.

SAGITTARIUS Nov 22—Dec 21

Jupiter, named for the divo god, expresses excess, expansion, excitement, exoticism—all the exes—and certainly ecstasy too. It suffuses you with outsized optimism in every sense. How do you like it? More, more, more. You're blessed by Jupiter's wife Juno, the diva goddess of power—Lady Godiva—with blinding beauty and glamazonial genius. They radiate from within, ensuring you'll never do without.

CAPRICORN Dec 22—Jan 20

Saturn, Father Time, endows you with endurance and self-preservation. Capricorn is the goat-horn of plenty, conserving our resources and abundance. A champion of quality over quantity, you have faith as your überpower. It realizes the future. Literally cultured, you exude timeless elegance. Tortoise, never hare, you set the pace and the standard. If taken seriously, you'll give us peeks of capriciousness.

AQUARIUS Jan 21—Feb 19

Aquarian uniqueness is more than skin deep. You're ruled by Uranus, planet of deviation and mutation, along which, if you know your evolution, life evolves. You personify the vanguard—a vision of the future. Sometimes you feel like a visitor from it. Your power is conviction in truth others have yet to swallow. So you're the cup bearer, pouring the knowledge that diversity breeds compassion.

PISCES Feb 20—Mar 20

Pisces' motto is "I believe," ruler Neptune being the planet of magic and imagination. As the mutable water sign—think foam, vapor—you can't be pinned down, and yet others lose themselves, enchanted by your foggy fabulosity. Like Aphrodite, born from the foam of Neptune's sea, fresh and dewy, you personify the ever renewable power of love. In its divine expression, you prove all things possible.
