

style

THE SUNDAY TIMES

JANUARY 28, 2007

A fashionable end

The fantasy death of Erin O'Connor

Down with the yummy mummy

One man's war on poser parents

Keep on rocking

Secrets of the sixtysomething
thrill-seekers

Catwalk special

The hottest trends and how to wear them: your spring/summer wardrobe starts here

GOING UP

PRADA MENSWEAR

Miuccia puts the crazy back into fashion for the boys. Be radical, man

DREAMGIRLS

We're all booked up to see the cinematic soul-fest of the year. You?

PIMP MY ALLOTMENT

With spring planting around the corner, luxe up your veg patch with willow hidey-holes, hedges and nice old furniture

SEXTROLOGY BY STARKY AND COX

This clever cult book is being republished next month. Astrology with added naughty bits

PATENT ACCESSORIES

Sharp, shiny bags and shoes are very spring 2007. Instant smarts, dolly birds

• • • • •

ST VALENTINE'S DAY

In a panic already. Shall we just cancel it now?

OVERDRESSING IN LA

The global capital of casual wear welcomes Posh, the queen of OTT. How will this work?

SUBTLE HAIR COLOUR

Nobody needs caramel, honey and auburn when they can have ebony, mandarin and Monroe blonde

FLYING

You know you shouldn't, but, oh, okaaaay, just one more

1980S BUMBAGS

Staging a comeback. Useful, yes. But never a pretty sight

GOING DOWN

